How long is the last year of high school? A few weeks? A few days? Last September we had been students for thousands of years and were going to be students forever, but suddenly the proctor has left the room. Tomorrow is today, filled with new freedom and responsibility. In the flicker of the present should we not glance back to see exactly where we have spent the short eternity of our high school years?

SAMUEL M. GRAVES,
Principal

In the years to come, may the pages of your yearbook bring back memories of your high school years. For each of you there have been hopes and fears, joys and heartaches, triumphs and defeats; but through it all, you have been attaining the stature of young men and young women. May all the lessons learned sustain you as you take your place in the world of further study, at work, or in the armed forces of your country. May you live each day with humility, kindness, and understanding. May God bless you all!

ADMINISTRATION

Students in Wellesley are fortunate in being directed by men who believe not in discipline for its own sake, but in the healthy climate of order which fosters a sense of responsibility without stifling originality. The School Board and Mr. Chaffee strive constantly to maintain the excellence of the high school plant with such additions as the new cafeteria and classroom wing to be completed in the fall of 1964. To Mr. Graves, Mr. Lape, and Mr. Kamitian we owe not only forceful direction of each day's program, but also a kindness and an understanding upon which no price may be set.

As the future unfolds, our paths diverge and multiply. No guidance department can possibly dictate the One and Only Safe and Easy Way, but counselors as sympathetic as Mr. Spang, Miss Craig, Mr. Mazukina, and Miss Capitell can at least point in the right direction. Because of their experience and their advice we can change our small sphere for a larger one without unnecessarily bruising our foolishly tender hearts.

AUTUMN

Autumn is pumpkin time. The days are blue and orange, the nights hoarfrost gray, the air soft or brittle by turns. There is time for everything, even for an idyll on the grass. June is far away.

There is time for nothing; the stream will freeze soon. December is just around the corner. The teams must practice and play, clubs must be reorganized, friendships renewed.

What stands out from the collage? The hot days of the famous drought? Our midget earthquake? Senior pictures taken, retaken, retaken . . . ? Interviews and sweaty hands? The grim mummery of the assassination of a President? Whatever autumn was, let us fix it or bottle it or somehow preserve it in pictures and words, beyond the reach of time.

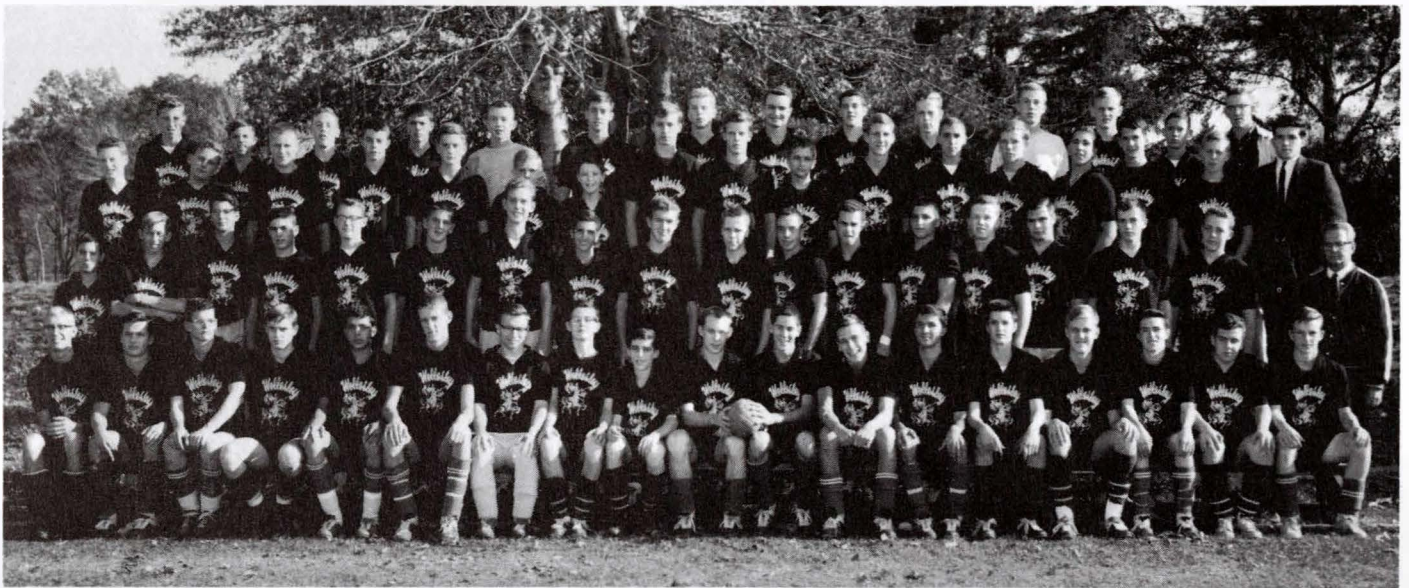

SOCCER

Wellesley's soccer team began the year in fine style with a total of six wins, two ties, and only three losses. Coached by Mr. Dodge and captained by Tom Dalton and Dick Amesbury, this year's team exhibited strong defense by halfbacks Pete Alderman, Todd Smith, and Dan Cashman, and by fullbacks Bob Griffin and John Yahres. Frontliners Tom Dalton, Dick Amesbury, Phil Boonissar, Louie Corticelli, and Dan Lyman, with goalie Rick Kent, completed the starting line.

FIELD HOCKEY

Varsity Co-Captains Barb Sullivan and Betsy Johnson led the field hockey team, coached by Mrs. Worgan, to a season of five wins, one loss, and three ties. Wellesley amassed a total of thirty-eight goals in contrast to only six goals for all opponents. Betsy Johnson, Claire Martel, and Janet Lyeth were outstanding players. The teams participated in the Bay State Association Playday in Wellesley, and a Hockey Clinic at Wellesley College. Field Hockey Intramurals were scheduled after school for all interested girls. The junior varsity, coached by Miss Morton and captained by Tina Hegstead, showed promise of becoming a strong team next year.

Mr. St. Cyr coached this year's energetic cross country team, captained by Arnie Devlin and Mike Adams. The team piled up a final record of six wins to three losses, placed sixth in Class B in the State Meet and fourth in the Bay State Conference. Arnie Devlin set a record on the Walpole course, came within six seconds of the record on the home course, and placed third in the State Meet just three seconds behind the winner. Pete Stipe and sophomore George Smith also placed in the State Meet, nineteenth and thirty-seventh respectively.

CHEERLEADERS

Irene Keefe was the captain of this year's cheerleading squad, sponsored by Mr. Burgess. Autumn saw bubbling activity at varsity football and soccer games and track meets as well as at the Natick and Milton Rallies. Plans for winter included attendance at basketball and hockey games, at least one basketball rally, and participation in the December cheerleading competition at Weston and in the Bay State Competition to be held during February vacation.

Debbie Card, Sally Pope, and Jean Salatich led this year's Twirlers, under Drillmaster Marchant. In addition to football games, rallies, and parades, the girls enlivened the Gym Show and the Bay State Competition with their skill. Popular demand led to a repetition at Thanksgiving of last year's successful Indian Routine.

COLOR GUARD

On Saturday afternoons Mr. Marchant also sent his contingent of color guard onto the football field to lend the proper note of pomp and circumstance to the proceedings. Captain Lucia Olsson and Co-Captain Rita Rotka led the procession and laid plans to march with the band in the spring on Memorial Day.

The marching band has much improved over the last two years; Wellesley seldom loses the battle of the bands at football games. Mr. Davis and Mr. Marchant worked hard and well, drilling the band several afternoons a week and devising new, colorful formations. Drum Major John Fortune and Sergeants Frank Villa, Stu Armstrong, Doug Purcell, Don Chaffee, Bruce Meyer, and Greg Varo contributed much to the precise movement of the band at the important Thanksgiving Day Game with Needham. The band participates every year in both the Veterans' Day and Memorial Day parades.

MARCHING BAND

PEP CLUB

Autumn rallies were primarily in the hands of the Pep Club, composed of one hundred and twenty-five members headed by Judy Winn and Wendy Callahan and sponsored by Mr. Burgess. In a whole-hearted effort to demonstrate the school's support for its teams, the Pep Club organized the Natick and Milton Rallies, as well as the Needham Rally which was cancelled by the death of President Kennedy. Vigorous attendance at football and basketball games rounded out the club's projected plans. Particularly enthusiastic and helpful were sophomores Maureen Kelley and Nancy Lofgren, juniors Donna O'Hara and Pat Gorgone, and seniors Judy Shaw and Vicki Edmonds.

Co-Captains Dave Burtt and Ned Doyle

Tom Pawlina

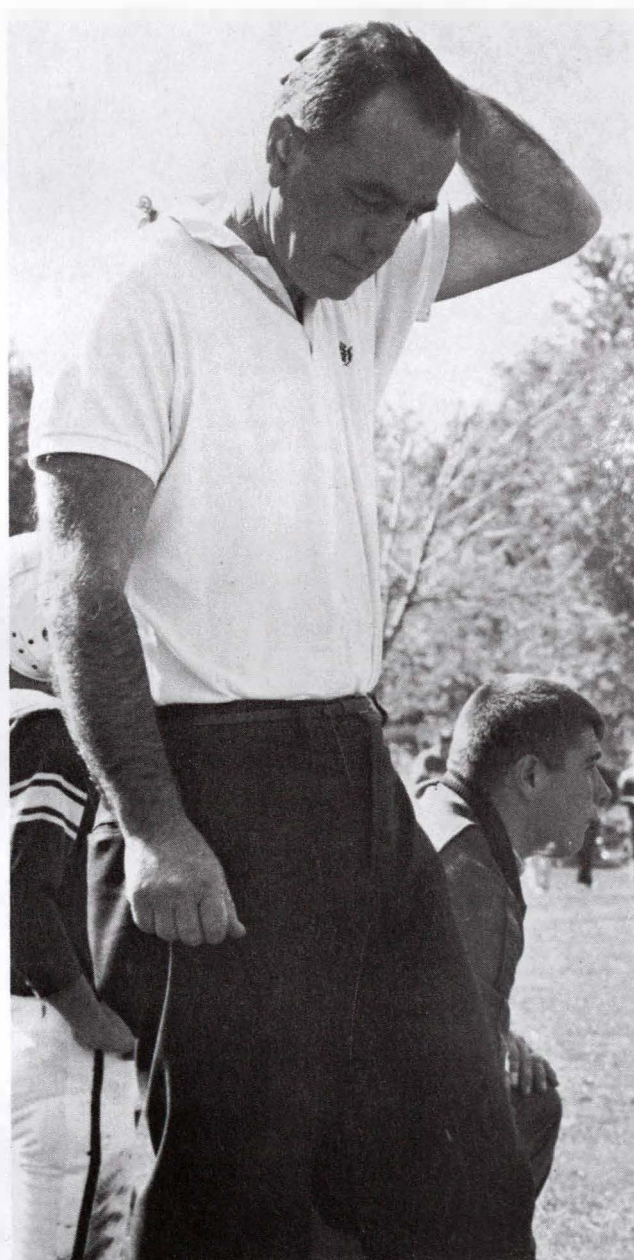

Autumn was football perhaps more than anything else. From early September the Red Raiders spent long hours on the practice field under the acute coaching of Mr. Certuse and Mr. Kerivan. Co-captained by Ned Doyle and Dave Burt, the team began the season by routing Natick by a score of thirty-two to eight. High scorers Eddie O'Neil and Tom Wales and an excellent defensive play in clutch times contributed to a strong season record of four victories, three losses (one in a non-league game against Newton South), and one tie, the traditional Thanksgiving Day Game against Needham. A well-balanced team contributed much to Wellesley's success. Mike Crowe and Bill Oberdick were defensive specialists. The season's starting lineup included center Frank Edmands, guards Dave Burt and Pete Spears, tackles Lou Santospago and Ned Doyle, ends Bob Nurczynski and Tom Pawlina, quarterbacks John Ciesluk and Chuck Gubellini, halfbacks Tom Wales and Eddie O'Neil, and fullback Rick Stratton. Congratulations are in order to all the players who so ably proved that pumpkin time is also football time.

WINTER

Winter is brittle and cramped, a season which crept behind us at Thanksgiving and pounced without warning. All of a sudden it was nearly dark when the four-thirty bus was loading. The afternoons and the weeks were shorter. December College Boards were hardly over before it was time to mail the applications for January. Music program, Christmas cotillion, and Christmas itself slipped by before we knew that they were upon us. January was all term papers and midyears — then suddenly term reports were out. We'd gone halfway without knowing it. There's so little time in midpassage.

STUDENT COUNCIL

With the constant growth of Wellesley High School in the past few years, the Student Council became so large that the transaction of business was impeded. Finally, in 1963 the organization of the Council was radically revised. A new constitution established a smaller council of thirty-two members: a president, a recording secretary, and ten members at large from each class.

Ellie May, Recording Secretary, and voted most versatile girl.

Vicky from Greece

An auxiliary Homeroom Council composed of all homeroom chairmen and the officers of each class was instituted in order to maintain contact with individual students and to facilitate projects requiring a person in each homeroom.

President Chuck Wiggin kept this year's Student Council busy with the season ticket drive, the welcoming assembly for sophomores, the Kickoff Dance, class elections, a civil rights essay contest, the United Fund drive, the Morgan Memorial drive, the Homecoming Dance, the Jewish War Veterans election, a survey of students' summer activities for the Wellesley Community Chest, and the Youth-in-Government Day elections in January. Council members set to work well before midwinter vacation to make plans for the Variety Show, the Gym Show, and a Student Council banquet. Two of the year's major projects were the formation of a girls' swimming team and the investigation of the possibility of new bleachers for the football field.

SENIOR COUNCIL

This year's Senior Council, under the guidance of Mr. Fitzgerald, was composed of a representative from each senior home-room and of the officers of the senior class: President Leo Boyle, Vice President Wendy Callahan, Secretary Susan Burr, and Treasurer William Carlson. The council met monthly in the fall during Monday assembly periods and bimonthly or as needed in the spring. Members were responsible not only for the sale of senior play tickets, but also for the organization of a jazz festival, a cheerleading competition, the senior-faculty basketball game, the senior prom, and the senior banquet.

SMOKING COUNCIL

Wellesley High's Smoking Council is perhaps a rather unusual body: a student organization designed to prevent student smoking on school grounds. Hotly debated since its inception in 1961, the Council was approved by a school-wide referendum in 1963. The Council is in no sense a student court, for punishment of smoking still lies in the hands of the administration. Nevertheless, Chairman Richard Stratton and the other members of this year's council have done much to curtail illegal smoking in the building.

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

Mrs. Breck, Mrs. Stimets, Members of the School Committee, Mr. Chaffee, Superintendent of Schools; Buddy Mear, Ellen Snyder, Susan Egan.

Every April the Exchange Club of Wellesley sponsors a Youth-in-Government Day in order to give high school juniors an opportunity to become better acquainted with town government. Candidates for office campaign with speeches and posters. Each student chosen by school-wide election serves one day in a town office and thus learns the responsibilities of the post to which he has been elected. At a banquet for all student officials, the Exchange Club awards prizes in the campaign poster competition and announces the Youth-in-Government Essay Contest winners, who receive a three-day trip to Washington, D.C. In 1963 the four essay contest winners were Ellie May, Leo Boyle, Judy Shaw, and Edward Carlo.

KEY CLUB

Eighteen seniors, fourteen juniors, and six sophomores composed this year's Key Club, headed by Ned Doyle, John King, Dave Campion, and Bill Carlson, and sponsored by Mr. Kamitian. During the fall Key Club members were in charge of the scoreboard and concession stand at football games. In collaboration with the Junior Red Cross, the Key Club provided bi-weekly parties for Wellesley's retarded children and organized Christmas and Easter parties at a Roxbury settlement house. In addition to contributing much-needed athletic equipment to the Hillside Home for Boys, club members organized a Key Club Dance on February 29.

DISCUSSION

Debating Club — First Row: S. Clapp, D. Blackstone, K. Evans. Second Row: S. Daggett, J. Zaragoza, J. Fitzpatrick, R. Scott, J. McCaffrey, Mr. Shepard.

1963-64 marked the beginning of Wellesley High's participation in the Greater Boston League of Debators. During the course of the year each member of the Debating Club participated in at least one of the eleven scheduled interscholastic debates. Club officers Daniel Blackstone, Bill Fitzpatrick, Sue Clapp, and Kathy Evans were among the most active debaters. Mr. Shepard coached this year's team.

Organized for the relief of scholastic tension and offering the relaxation that formal debate does not provide, the History Forum, moderated by Mr. Burgess, found an enthusiastic following in the High School this year. Hank Kelsh and his consistently conservative dissension marked the club as a stronghold against more liberal organization of the school.

History Forum — K. Larsen, M. Lambert, C. Fager, M. Monroe, J. McCaffrey, P. Hammerstein. H. Kelsh, R. Bennett, K. Babson, Mr. Burgess.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Patty Papps and Lucia Olsson headed this year's Future Teacher's of America Club, sponsored by Mr. Andrew. During one study period a week each FTA member visited a nearby elementary school to observe classroom procedure and to teach. The group also laid plans to attend the state convention in March and to go on a field trip to the elementary schools of a nearby town.

The Junior Red Cross is dedicated to service to the community. This year's group, sponsored by Miss Hickey and headed by Sue Connolly and Nancy Talbot, not only conducted the Red Cross enrollment and paperback book drives, but also assisted the Key Club in wrapping presents for the Christmas party at the Cooper Settlement House in Boston. In addition, at least once a month the Key Club and Junior Red Cross provided Saturday morning games and entertainment for the mentally retarded children at the Fiske and Phillips schools.

First Row: L. Walchi, M. Kirchberger, N. Talbot, S. Connolly, S. Wilde, N. Hinton, F. McMillan. Second Row: Miss Hickey, M. Genovese, L. Bachrach, J. Onthank, M. Zepp, S. Young, L. Grafinger.

Crowther.

Although the Art Service Club has neither regular meetings nor specific program, it is an organization of considerable importance to nearly all school activities. The fire drill signs in every room, the decorations for school dances, and the innumerable posters for miscellaneous activities and campaigns are the work of Art Service members.

Although Wellesley complied with the Supreme Court's banishment of Bible reading and prayer from the public schools, the Devotionals Committee, sponsored by Miss Teed and headed by Ann Wallace, continued to conduct opening exercises. Committee members attempted to provide food for thought by presenting each morning a brief musical selection, a secular reading, and a moment for silent meditation.

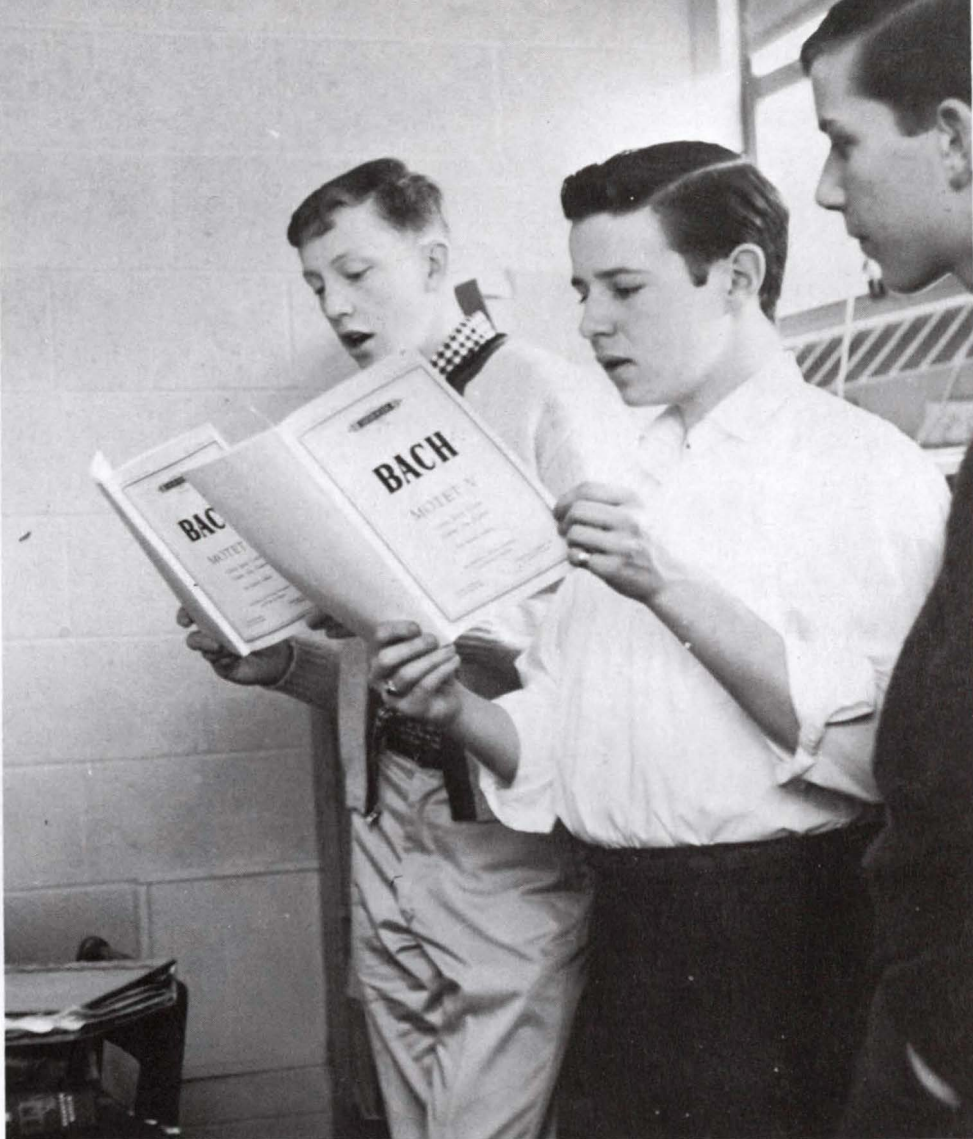

VOCAL MUSIC

Jack Pyle, Randy Scott, the Two Strangers

Madrigal — F. Daly, J. Arsenault, W. Lowther.

The madrigal singers were organized this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Landry in order to provide an opportunity for a small mixed chorus to sing both sacred and secular music of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Dru Crigler and Paul Machlin were this year's representatives to the Music Board. In two practice sessions a week, the group prepared to participate in the Solo and Ensemble Festival sponsored by Boston University. One of the club's principal concerns was the preparation of a Bach motet for performance either next year or late this spring.

Mr. Landry also directed this year's Senior Girls' Ensemble whose representatives to the Music Board were Halyna Barannik and Judy Bing. During the year the group participated in the Christmas Assembly, sang Ukranian folk songs arranged by Halyna Barannik, and planned to take part in the Student Council Variety Show and the Spring Music Assembly.

Crigler, B. Nadas, B. Close, L. Vallender.

This year Mr. Chase directed a Glee Club composed of about one hundred singers accompanied by Gordon Saunders and Sue Charow. Representatives to the Music Board were Bill Daly and Sue Woodruff. In addition to recording a Thanksgiving program and performing at the Christmas Assembly, club members laid tentative plans for a spring concert with Brookline similar to last May's combined performance with Newton of Schubert's Mass in G Major. During the spring the Glee Club spent considerable time on a dramatized cantata in which John Railsback, Bob O'Malley, Alex Achmat, Ken Bloett, John King, and Eric Gulbrandsen were notable solists.

Sue Burr was responsible for the organization of the eight-member sing group known as the Haymakers (a name, the girls say, chosen for the lack of anything better). The Haymakers are new but active; during the year they sang at the Christmas Assembly, the AFS Christmas Party, the Ski Club Dance, and the Weston High School Hootenany. In addition, the girls planned to sing at the Variety Show.

MUSIC

A Cappella in rehearsal

In addition to many other singing groups, Mr. Landry directed the Girls' Chorus, whose officers this year were Liz Pippitt, Nancy Nichols, and Sibyl Mac-Innerney. In two practice periods a week members studied some theory and prepared to participate in the Christmas and Spring Assemblies.

Section leaders of Mr. Landry's A Cappella Group were Lisa Benedict, Martha Rainey, John Railsback, and George Smith. Lisa Benedict and John Railsback were also representatives to the Music Board. A Cappella not only participated in the Christmas Assembly and planned to perform at graduation, but also prepared a thirty-minute program of secular and sacred music for the All State Conference sponsored by the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association at New Bedford on April 11.

This year the fifteen-member Assembly Choir rehearsed every Wednesday afternoon under the direction of Mr. Landry. Self-limited almost entirely to sacred music, the choir sang at the National Honor Society Induction and prepared an engagement at the Rotary Club on March 24.

SKI TEAM

This year's Ski Team, sponsored by Mr. Loret and headed by Martin Zeller, Jeff Marshall, Martha White, and Ann Wallace, have been somewhat frustrated by a lack of snow; two of the boys' meets and one of the girls' meets had to be canceled. Nonetheless, the boys won both the slalom and the giant slalom at the Nashua High Meet at Mount Ascutney, and they are confident of success at Proctor and New Hampton. Both teams are looking forward to competition with Bennington High, Bennington Catholic High, and the Cambridge School of Weston.

In addition to the Ski Teams, Mr. Loret sponsored this year's Ski Club. Officers Chip Fossett, Heidi Ulbrich, and Sally Pope sponsored not only the Ski Club Dance in October but also ski weekends whenever the supply of snow and of interested students so warranted. Members went to Cranmore, New Hampshire, on January 4, and to Belnap-Gunstock, New Hampshire, on January 31. The club also laid plans for both a four-day trip to Conway, New Hampshire, during winter vacation and several trips to Mt. Snow, Vermont.

Captains Rick Stratton and Ken Hurley led Wellesley's Wrestling Team through an undefeated season in the Bay State League. Team members were confident of success both in the Needham match, which would decide the Bay State title, and in the State Meet, to be held at Wellesley. In addition to Rick Stratton and Ken Hurley, seniors Mike Crowe, Jim Varnado, Arnie Devlin, and Dave Darlington have formed the backbone of this year's team. Next year's prospects seem bright, for returning juniors Steve Wood, Albey Dunn, Dick Low and Gene Paltrineri have shown great promise.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Many of the members of this year's Varsity and Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball Teams participated in a pre-season playday at Needham. Mrs. Worgan coached both the Varsity, captained by Barb Sullivan, and the Junior Varsity headed by Sue Talmadge and Ann Dennen. In order to participate in the post-season tournament to which they have been invited, Varsity members must win at least half of the games they play during the season. After seven games the Varsity record was three victories, three losses, and one tie, and the Junior Varsity had five wins to two losses.

BOYS' GYM TEAM

Ben Mills and Rick Kent captained the 1964 Boys' Gymnastic Team, coached by Mr. St. Cyr. With eight victories and only one loss out of nine meets, Wellesley was looking forward to first place in the Bay State Conference Meet and in the Massachusetts State Meet. Top-performing seniors Rick Kent, Ben Mills, Mike Haughey, Steve Sargent, Gerry Peek, John Lunney, and Brad Gray were confident of success in the state individual competitions.

GIRLS' GYM TEAM

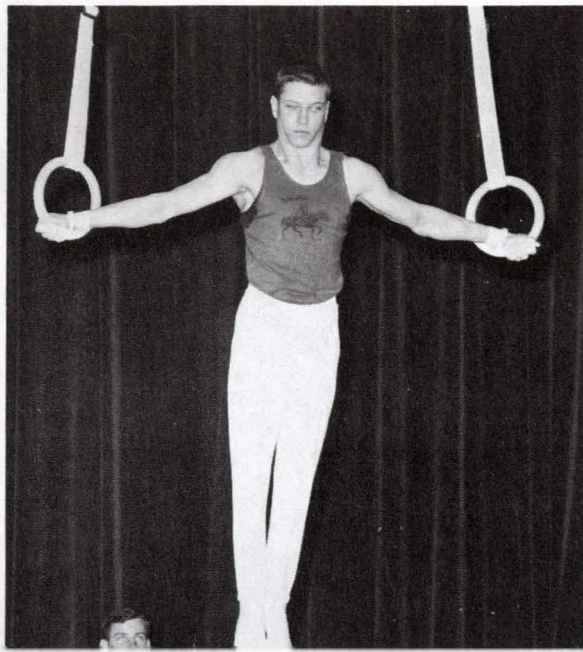

Two years ago, when the Girls' Gymnastic Team was first organized, Wellesley placed second in the Girls' State Gymnastic Meet. Last year's team held both the state and New England championships. Miss Morton coached this year's team, captained by Vicky Edmonds and Jacki Chevone. Team members hope to live up to Wellesley's reputation in the six events in girls' competition: side horse vaulting, floor exercises, and work on the balance beam, uneven parallel bars, and trampoline.

GYM SHOW

On April 3 and 4, Wellesley High School presented its twenty-fourth annual gym show in the school auditorium. As in preceding years, the show was a joint production of the boys' and girls' athletic squads, the student council, and the music department. In spite of a slow start, the ticket drive ended in a sellout. The show included standard gymnastic events, girls' modern dances, the popular bamboo dance, boys' triple balancing, pyramids, and tableaux.

SWIMMING

Captains Dick Amesbury and John Hoppock led this year's Swimming Team, coached by Mr. Mear, to a final League record of eight victories and one loss. Beating a strong Brookline team in the last meet to gain a tie for the league championship, the team had its eyes on first place in both the Eastern Massachusetts State Meet on February 22 and the Massachusetts State Meet on February 29. Senior John Hoppock, the 1963 State Champion in the 50-yard freestyle, holds school records in the 50-yard freestyle, the 200-yard freestyle, and the 100 yard butterfly. Other holders of school records are Dick Amesbury, Al Edmunds, Carl Penndorf, and Bill Dugan.

After nine league games, this year's Hockey Team, coached by Mr. Hines and captained by Ned Doyle and Ted Allison, had a record of five wins, three losses, and one tie and held fourth place in the Bay State League. On February 8 the team began the Bay State League Tournament against Needham, Norwood, and Walpole in hopes of qualifying for the State Tournament. Much of Wellesley's strength lay in its first two lines composed of Ned Doyle, Ted Allison, Ed O'Neil, Dan Lyman, John Maples, and Bill Carlson.

BASKETBALL

First Row: A. Neher, P. Boonisar, R. Griffin, P. Alderman, P. Cremonini, R. Woodman. Second Row: J. Lubin, J. Freeman, G. MacNaughton, T. Dalton, J. King, T. Neher, D. Cashman, C. Keenan, Mr. Bergstrom.

Pete Alderman and Bob Griffin captained this year's Basketball Team, coached by Merrill Bergstrom. Although plagued throughout the year by injuries, Wellesley's team managed an exciting and successful season. Phil Boonisar and Bob Griffin were the heroes of the double overtime against Framingham North in the second conflict. Wellesley lost to Natick in the first conflict by the unusually high score of 94 to 91. Paul Cremonini and John Freeman rescued the Raiders from several dangerous situations with their skillful shooting and dribbling.

SPRING

Spring is the soggy season when flowers grow where they shouldn't, the afternoons grow longer, and the snowpile out by Washington Street begins to melt. College Boards, the Science Fair, and the Gym Show appear on the horizon, and parts of the yearbook go to press even before some spring sports begin their seasons. Our teachers and our classmates have become such fixed parts of our lives that we can hardly believe there are only a few months left. Even before one year has gone, we must think of the next. We see in part; what seems complete is never so.

ORCHESTRA

Mr. Davis conducted this year's orchestra, which prepared in weekly practice sessions for appearances at many assemblies throughout the year and at the Christmas Assembly and Spring Concert. With a new technique of breaking into sections the orchestra saves many hours of practicing and enables the body to branch out and try new music. Happily for assembly-goers the repertoire has in this way grown. Lisa Durrell and Dave Gill are representatives to the Music Board.

CONCERT BAND

Assisted by student teacher Peter Levin from Boston University, Mr. Davis directed Wellesley's concert band of ninety-three members. This year's officers were Greg Varo, Stuart Armstrong, Joanna Curry, and Doug Purcell. In addition to a Band Assembly in February and an evening concert in March, band members were looking forward to the Southeast District Music Festival at Norton, Massachusetts, in May. Hopes were also high for attendance at the All State Music Festival at New Bedford on April 10.

AMBASSADORS

Ambassadors: First Row: P. Beuttel, C. Morris, E. Childs, F. Villa, P. Fitzgerald, I. Buchan, J. Porter, C. Gentilhomme, R. Lovewell. Second Row: A. Phillips, P. Arnot, J. Herrick, D. Purcell, T. Brainerd, B. Meyer, G. Trigg, B. Claflin.

Woodwind Quintet: M. Benotti, T. Tracey, S. Lathrop, N. Gale, J. Lewis.

This year's Ambassadors, led by Don Chaffee, met valiantly each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at the unholy hour of 7:30. Dedicated to modern music, entertainment and enjoyment, the group participated in school assemblies and planned appearances at the Jazz Band and the Talent Show.

This year Maria Benotti led the Woodwind Quintet, an independent music group which practiced regularly throughout the year for such appearances as that at the Christmas Assembly.

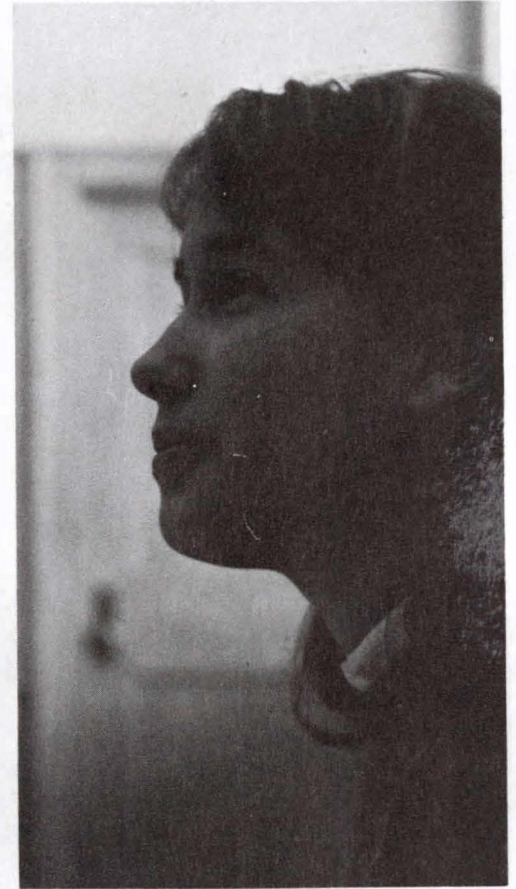

MUSIC BOARD

Established only this year, the Music Board consists of two representatives from each recognized musical group in the school. Paul Machlin was the first chairman of this useful sounding-board for student opinion on musical affairs.

Music Board: First Row: L. Durrell, L. Benedict, H. Barannik, D. Crigler, T. Jameson, M. Benotti. Second Row: J. Bird, J. Bing, F. Daly, D. Gill, S. Armstrong, P. Machlin.

PUBLICATIONS

Edited and aided by Ellen Snyder, Sara Young, Ellen Marram, Ginny Jones, Tom Dalton, Steve Sargent, John Fortune, and Gig Babson, the Bradford rolled along its merry way under the sponsorship of Mr. Reynolds. A special six-page anniversary issue, constantly controversial editorials, and Genevieve's pithy wisdom kept sales high. The Bradford interviews new students at Wellesley, publishes the senior class will, and dispenses general euphoria to all subscribers.

The death rattle of the Tangent had hardly ceased before the Stylus came into being, sponsored by Mr. Kabatznick and edited by Betsy Nadas and Dru Crigler. Through the English Department the staff busily solicited contributions for the one, great, unbelievably stupendous issue, to be published (actually printed for the first time!) at the end of March.

Goran Nordbladh, from Sweden

The American Field Service Club always has a lively year's program. In addition to bimonthly meetings usually followed by a brief slide lecture given by a returned AFS traveler, this year's club participated eagerly in the annual Christmas party, to which foreign students living in nearby towns were invited, and in the midwinter party on February 1. Other club activities were the Tag Days in November and April and the annual AFS Assembly for the junior and sophomore classes. The three foreign students at Wellesley during 1963-64 were Vassiliki Dimitrakopoulou from Greece, Goran Norbladh from Sweden, and Eli Noam from Germany. Under the AFS program Wellesley sent Jon Perry to France during the summer of 1963 and Andrea Bertocci and Andrew Gill to Germany and Belgium during the school year.

Mr. Graves awarded certificates and pins to newly-elected members of the Wellesley High Chapter of the National Honor Society at the annual induction ceremony on Wednesday evening, December 11, 1963. After a speech by Dr. Rice of the Wellesley Unitarian Church, refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

This year's society, sponsored by Mr. Lundgren and headed by President John Hoppock and Secretary Lisa Durrell, numbered fifty-three seniors and twenty-three juniors. By means of brownie sales in the cafeteria the society continued its support of its Greek foster child, Despina Kourti. On February 1, 1964, Mr. Lundgren accompanied delegates Ellen Marram and Sue Arnold to the National Honor Society Convention at Natick High School.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

As usual, the Wisewell Science Club had a busy year. Sponsored by Mr. D'Aniello and Mr. Vasaturo and headed by President David Meissner and Secretary-Treasurer William Stewart, the club arranged for the benefit of all interested students a lecture series which included such varied topics as diamond mining, polarized light, plant pest control, experimental biology and tropical diseases. In addition, club members made plans for a conservation field trip and for tours of the Minneapolis Honeywell and Western Electric plants in the Boston area.

WISEWELL SCIENCE CLUB

SCIENCE QUIZ TEAM

The Science Quiz Team, sponsored by the American Chemical Society and captained by John MacDonald and Joseph Kay, had a most successful year. Framingham Radio Station WKOX carried Wellesley's victories over Framingham and Westboro. The team's success against Marlboro and its single defeat, by Boston Latin, were televised on Dateline Boston.

First Row: Mr. Lydon, R. Kent, B. Stewart, J. Macdonald, J. Kay, S. Catinella. Second Row: C. Wiggin, J. Stanwood, T. Brainerd, P. Fearnside, D. Meissner, W. Perry.

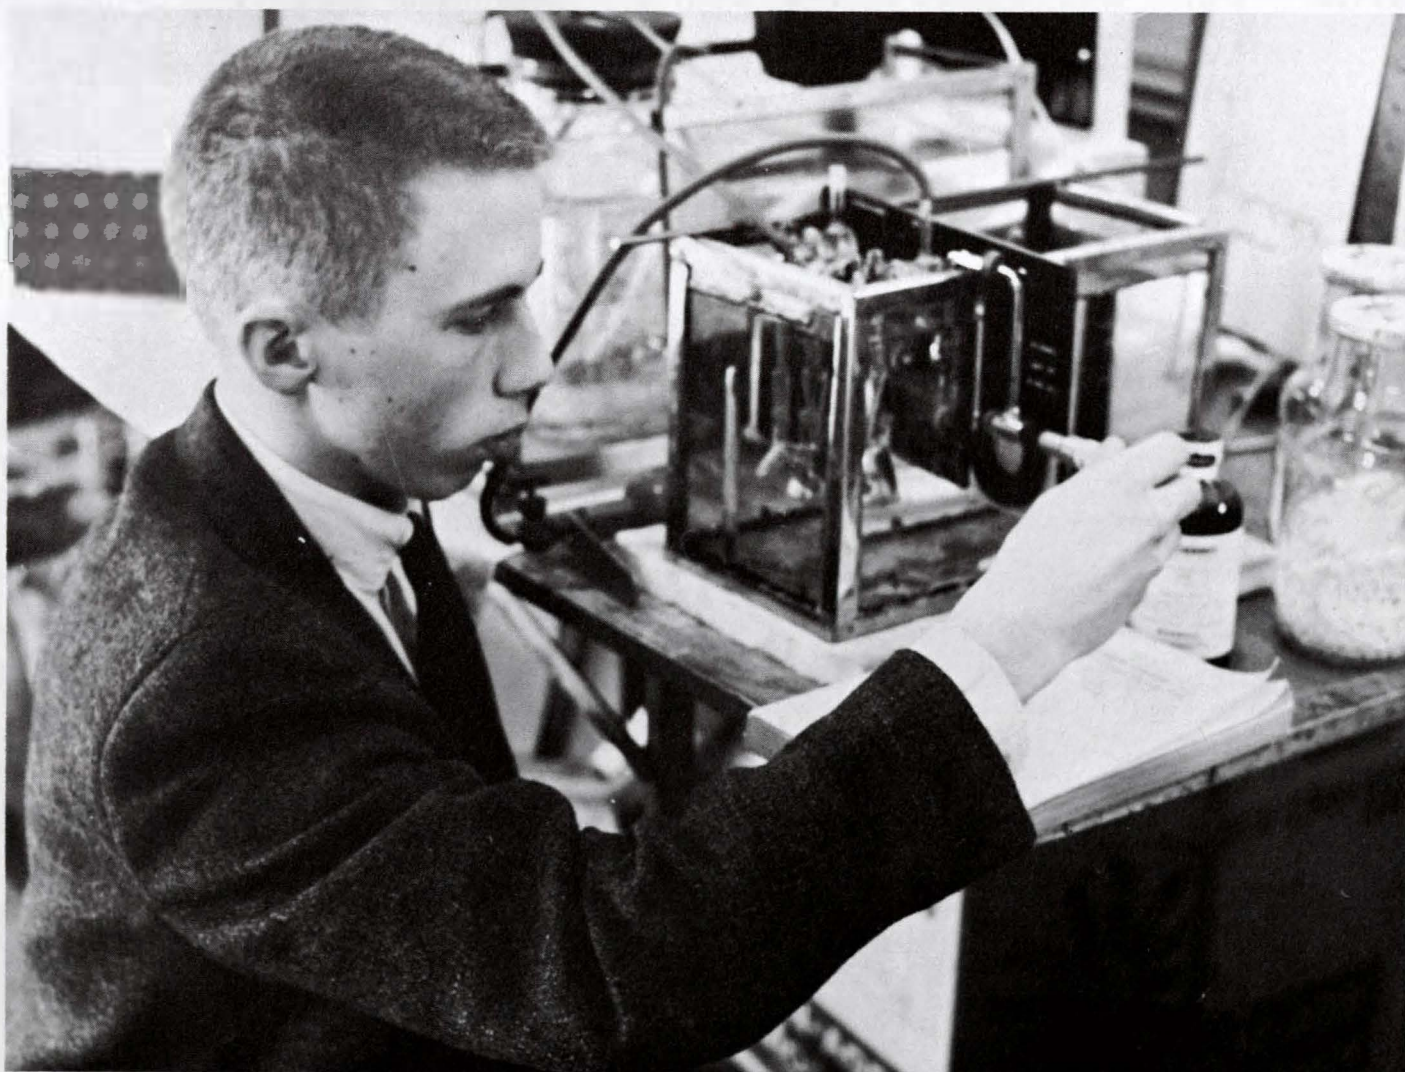

SCIENCE FAIR

Wellesley's twelfth annual science fair was held in the Larsson Gymnasium on March 18. Although there were only eighty exhibits, considerably fewer than in previous years because of a change in requirements for entering, the fair was enjoyed by participants and visitors alike. Chuck Wiggin won first place in physics for his work with a gas laser; Robert Thurrell's project on electrophoresis carried off top honors in chemistry. First place in biology went to John MacDonald's environmental suspension system.

SPRING TRACK

Graduated seniors Joel Martin and Bill Edgerton captained last year's spring track squad, coached by Mr. St. Cyr. Three team members placed in the conference meet, and Captain Edgerton captured a first in the state competition. This year's team has the benefit of a new pole vault runway and pit and of a new high jump approach; members are confident of repeating last year's success.

First Row: B. Mills, S. Angelini, J. Dingman, R. Schoals, A. Dunn, I. Breck, P. Esposito, T. Johnson, T. Wales, J. Dick, T. Neher. Second Row: Mr. McDermott, assistant coach, D. Stewart, P. Stipe, P. Spears, D. Maxwell, K. Chittim, K. Bulger, P. Jones, P. Canoni, D. Burt, B. Dick, K. Marchand, W. Tate, M. Crowe, Mr. St. Cyr, coach. Third Row: R. Stuart, R. Spellman, D. Campion, F. Edmands, D. Christainsen, R. Griffin, A. Neher, C. Adams, J. Herrick, G. MacNaughton, T. Brainerd, C. Fossett, A. Devlin, R. Noonan.

LACROSSE

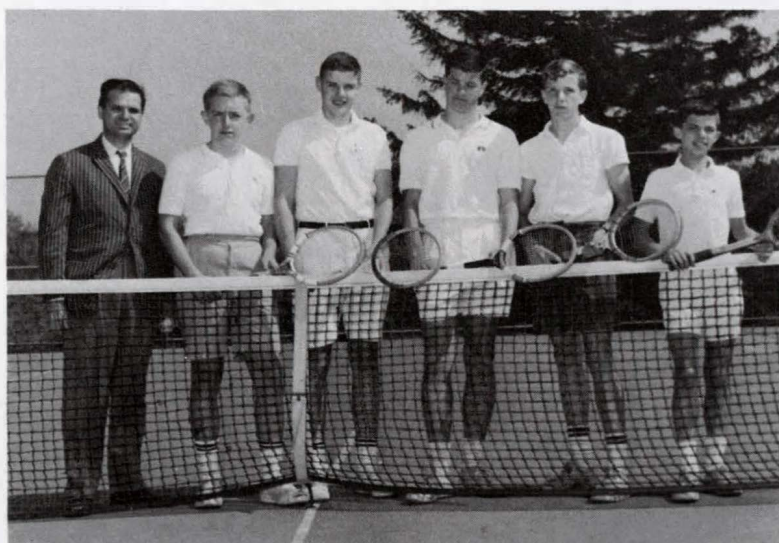

With Mrs. Worgan as coach, Wellesey's Varsity and Junior Varsity Lacrosse teams start practicing early in the spring and play until the end of May. Last year's players captained by graduated seniors Sue McGuane and Bambi Chu, played a total of six games, primarily with private schools since few public schools in this area include lacrosse in their sports programs. With the help of seniors Martha Sallinger, Betsy Johnson, Sandy Dale, Nancy Heinbaugh, and Ginny Jones, the team can expect an exciting and successful season in 1964.

In tennis, Wellesley always has an enviable reputation. Last year's team, coached by Mr. Andrew and captained by Nat West, triumphed over Braintree, Framingham, Milton, Natick, Needham, Norwood, and Walpole for an undefeated season in the Bay State League and a final record of fourteen victories, no ties, and no losses. The 1964 team is understandably confident of success in the spring.

BOYS' TENNIS

Mr. Andrew, W. Fager. C. Grinnell, E. Childs, W. Lowther, S. Wood.

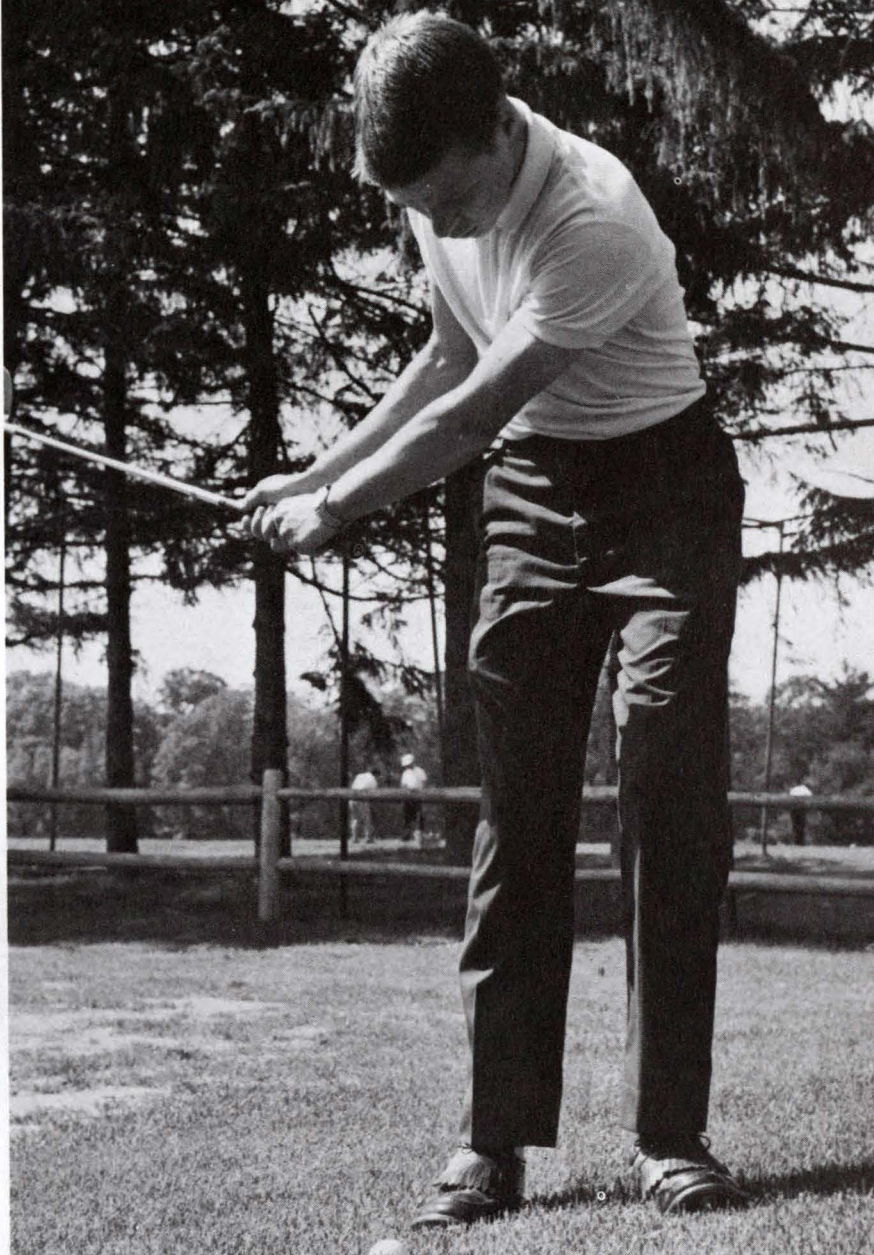

First Row: K. Bustin, K. Hoffman, D. Hoffman. Second Row: B. Tilley, A. Polimeno, L. McFarlin, C. Martel.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The record of last year's Girls' Tennis Team augurs well for 1964. With Miss Morton as coach, the players brought in a final record of five victories and two losses in league games with Needham, Framingham, Braintree, Norwood, Natick, Dedham, and Walpole. This year's team looks forward to an equally good season.

GOLF

Wellesley's 1963 Golf Team finished second in the Bay State League with six wins, one loss, and one tie in games against Braintree, Framingham, Natick, Walpole, Norwood, Needham, Dedham, and Milton. Although last year's team was made up almost entirely of seniors, Mr. Burgess and members of the 1964 squad are hopeful of continued success this year.

With warm weather just around the corner, it won't be long before Wellesley's pitchers and catchers begin practice in the gym. Last year's baseball team, coached by Mr. Kerivan and headed by graduated seniors Ray Ilg and Joe Pignatiello, finished a successful season with a record of eleven wins and five losses. The 1964 team is confident of equaling or bettering that record.

SENIORS

It's been a long twelve years, almost surely the longest of our lives. The high school will be empty when we've left — not completely, of course, and not for long. It will be filled next September, and the September after that, and the September after that, but for us it will be largely empty of familiar faces and therefore foreign, a strange place we'll visit next Christmas to see our teachers once again. Yes, the high school will be empty when we've left.

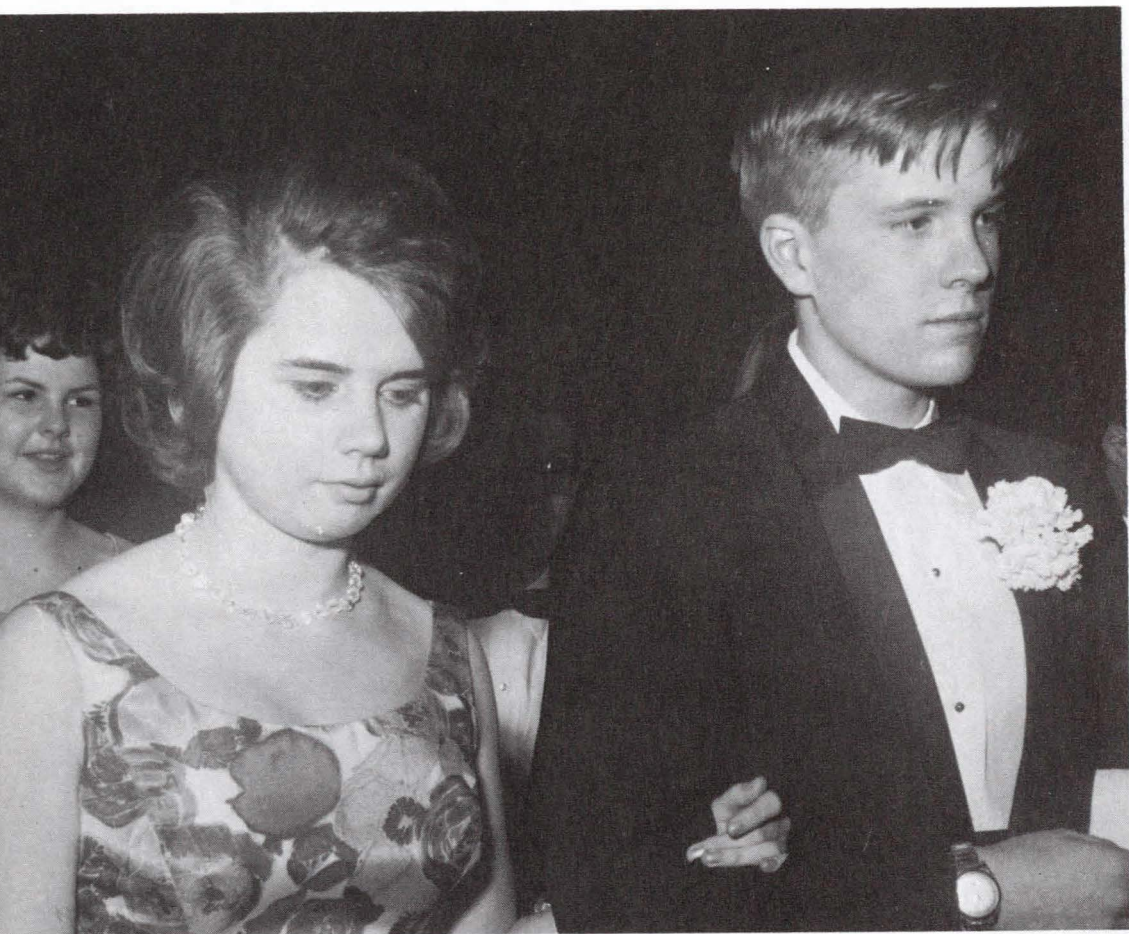

On December 19, 1963, the senior class presented Thornton Wilder's comic allegory, The Skin of Our Teeth. A large cast directed by Mr. Fitzsimmons with principal roles played by Lynda Fumia, Richard Bachmann, Sybil McInnerney, Andrea Bernstein, and Lee Brown, ably fronted in a single evening the perils of a large audience, an ice age, and Noah's Flood. In spite of double casting and the difficulty of assembling the entire cast for full rehearsals, the actors succeeded in projecting both the surface comedy and the essential significance of the play. In addition to members of the cast, Robert Bouvier, Joanne Abbey, and all others who worked on scenery, properties, make-up, costumes, or publicity deserve to be congratulated on a memorable production.

JUNIOR PROM

The 1963 Junior Prom took place on the "Twelfth of Never" in an atmosphere of blue and green nylon nets, pastel trees, and decorators' scaffolding. Andrea Bertocci awarded door prizes, and the Villagers provided entertainment. While Mr. Graves crowned Ned Doyle and Nancy Onthank King and Queen of the evening, Dave Burtt and Sue Burr, newly-elected Duke and Duchess, fell in line for the traditional grand march.

First Row: R. Amesbury, E. May, D. Card, L. Boyle, B. Lowe, C. Butler, R. Kent, M. Light, J. Perry, N. Nichols, H. Nivling, V. Jones, E. Marram, P. Machlin, J. Kay, J. Emerson. Second Row: D. EDITOR'S MESSAGE

On warm spring afternoons you can see little knots of people standing here and there in front of the school, and the scene, however commonplace, is never quite duplicated during the autumn or winter months. Perhaps school has not yet worn the more assiduous students down to a dull stub, or perhaps a winter wind has forgotten they are there and chills them and the ground as well. But, as I am more inclined to believe, there is a certain something belonging peculiarly to spring which creates small human coagulations near the bleachers or the brook, or on the steps.

In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not shrink from this responsibility — I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it — and the glow from that fire can truly light the world.

John Fitzgerald Kennedy
